

Global Locations

Global Mining Product Solutions

Austin Engineering is a leading designer and manufacturer of customised dump truck bodies, buckets and ancillary products used in the mining industry. We are also a complete service provider, offering on and off-site repair and maintenance and heavy equipment lifting services to customers including miners, mining contractors and original equipment manufacturers.

With a presence in some of the world's principal mining regions, Austin Engineering provides high quality, cost effective solutions, delivered on-time and backed by through-life product support.

- Off-highway dump truck bodies
- Mining buckets
- Water tanks
- Service modules
- Tyre handlers
- Ancillary attachments
- Equipment repair and maintenance
- Specialised fabrication
- Painting and blasting
- Specialised machining and boring
- On-site maintenance and shut downs

austinengineering<sup>LTD</sup>

www.austineng.com